

How Do I submit a name for the Search Process?

If you regularly attend an ADGL congregation or mission, you can suggest a name. Before suggesting a name, please pray for wisdom, read the requirements for leadership as a bishop, and then contact the person to see if they are willing to be considered as a nominee. They should read the Candidate Profile and the Archbishop's Customary found on the diocesan website to determine their eligibility. If they agree, then submit that person's name through the diocesan website. For those unable to submit names electronically, a paper form is available to print below or will be available through your local congregation.

Check the ADGL website - adgl.us/new-bishop-search - for other requirements as determined by the ACNA and the Standing Committee (Candidate's Profile). Pray for wisdom, ask the man you wish to put forth if he is eligible and willing to have his name submitted; if he agrees, submit his name on the website or send the form below to the ADGL office.

NO NAMES WILL BE RECEIVED AFTER JULY 20, 2020.

Your Name and Congregation _____

Name You Wish to Submit _____

Their Current Contact Info _____

Their Current Position _____

Those names submitted will then be put on a list and reviewed by the Search Committee for canonical regularity and eligibility. Those deemed eligible will then be contacted to ascertain if they are willing to have their names considered as nominees. Those who agree will make up a roster of formal nominees who will then undergo extensive background checks, tests, and reviews to document that they are fit for the office of bishop. Therefore, a suggestion does not necessarily mean that the name will end up as a nominee or a candidate.
